The I Design experience is all about making you look and feel your best. Our team of cutting and color experts are committed to personal growth and professional development. The entire team attends mandatory in-salon education, as well as traveling through the U.S. to train with the foremost colorists, artists and educators in our industry. The reward is superior hair color and design results. We utilize procedures and techniques that meet the highest standards time after time. Your personal formulas, methods and timing will be carefully recorded. This means consistent predictable service and peace of mind for our clients.
